

Course: Ultrasound during labour and delivery

Danish Society of Fetal Medicine

Thursday 5th October 2017

Location: Auditorium 2, Rigshospitalet, Copenhagen

Objective: The course is intended at sonographers and medical doctors working in the area of obstetrics and obstetric ultrasound. The course will aim to give an update on ultrasound during labour and delivery.

Language: English.

Registration: E-mail Tina Käehne: tina.kaehne@rsyd.dk stating name, department and EAN number.

Registration Fee: Dkk. 1000 incl. lunch and coffee.

Organizers:

Karen Wøjdemann, Consultant, PhD, Department of surgery, Bornholms Hospital

E-mail: karen.reinhold.woejdemann@regionh.dk

Pia Ertberg, Consultant, Department of Obstetrics, Herlev Hospital.

E-mail: pia.ertberg.02@regionh.dk

Speakers:

Bradley de Vries, Consultant, MD, Clinical senior lecturer, Sydney University, Australia

Torbjørn Eggebø, MD, Seksjonsoverlege at KK, St. Olavs Hospital, Professor at NTNU, Norway

Lars H. Pedersen, Associate Professor, Consultant, MD, PhD, Aarhus University and Aarhus University Hospital

Programme:

09.30	Registration and coffee
10.00	Ultrasound during labour	T. Eggebø
11.00	Ultrasound at full dilatation incl. demonstration	B. de Vries
11.45	Lunch
12.45	Manuel rotation - how to perform and evidence for use	B. de Vries
13.45	Ultrasound and Vacuum extraction	T. Eggebø
14.15	Tea/Coffee
14.45	Peripartum ultrasound of the placenta	L. H. Pedersen
15.15	Panel discussion
15.45	Evaluation of the day	K. Wøjdemann & P. Ertberg